

Celebrating the season

Above, bluegrass band Behind the Times, featuring Benjamin Teague, left, and Dana Cupp, performed for guests in front of Younger's Irish Tavern. At left, Sydney Kuligowski, 7, gets her face painted during Romeo Harvest Day.

Guests got a chance to climb aboard a trolley that explored Romeo during the Harvest Day festival. Guests got to learn fun facts about Romeo during the ride.

Source photos/
Daniel Moen

One of the most successful activities took place in front of Connely's Creations during Romeo's Harvest Day on Oct. 12. Families created their own scarecrows with hay donated by Van's Valley and toddler clothes donated by members of the community.

For more photos from this event, visit the Media Center Gallery at www.sourcenewspapers.com