NOTES Romeo Home Town Boy Celebrates his Grand Opening!

Hi!

We are having a Romeo Chamber of Commerce Grand Opening for Earth Environments in Romeo, owned by Jason Arnott, on July 22, and it would be great if you could come here and film some of it for a Romeo, home town boy, Romeo High School Graduate, who is doing well.

We are celebrating his many successful, and beautiful design landscape works. As you will see by the attached, he is very involved in our community and gives back. He is a member of the Romeo Historical Society and has won an award for his Historic Preservation projects including the renovation of the Almont Historical Museum. He is also a member of the Romeo DDA. During our celebration we are collecting donations for the Romeo Historical Society and possibly the Sparky Fund at Wilson's Veterinary Clinic.

So, open the attached. Let me know what else you need. Let us know if you accept our invitation!
